An Affirmation of Faith
 Setting a cross on top of a church may be fine
 but it is not discipleship.
 Putting a cross on the altar is a worthy sign
 but it is not discipleship.
 Wearing a cross on a chain might seem enough
 but it is not discipleship.
 Getting it tattooed over one's heart might be tough
 but it is not discipleship.
 Singing about the old rugged cross may be inspiring
 but it is not discipleship.
 Preaching about the cross can point the way
 but it is not discipleship.
 Weeping on Good Friday may seem devout
 but it is not discipleship.
 Following the Christ,
 not counting the cost,
 old bridges burning,
 listening and learning,
 setting your face
 - trusting sheer grace,
 on the steep track,
 not looking back,
 loving, forgiving,
 dying while living:
 That is discipleship. [Bruce Prewer]#

- Prayer and Praise:
- Pray for Pastor Kevin, Emily and Colten as they lead our church and take on many roles within the church.

Questions to take home

- What are your personal testimonies of “mountain top” experiences?
- Do you have any personal testimonies of “Gethsemane” / “Peniel” experiences, wrestling with God?
- Why would Jesus not have wanted that mountain top experience talked about?
- Why would Jesus only have taken Peter, James and John with him and not the other 9 disciples?
- Who was the transfiguration for – Jesus or the other three?
- How have you built a life of persistent, consistent witness?
